

panel of names presently being used in said county), and shall direct the clerk of said court to legibly write upon ballots the names of the remaining forty-seven jurors, and after carefully folding said ballots separately to place them in a box with a sliding top, and said clerk shall draw said ballots therefrom one at a time without looking into said box and the first twenty-two names drawn, with the foreman previously appointed, shall constitute the grand jury, and the remaining twenty-five names (or, in Montgomery and Washington counties the remaining number of names) shall constitute the petit jury for said term of court; whenever a vacancy shall occur in the position of foreman of the grand jury, either temporary or permanent, by death, absence, sickness or any other cause, the court shall have power to appoint some other member of the grand jury foreman as often as the necessity for such appointment shall occur. If for any reason any person or persons drawn as a grand juror or grand jurors shall fail to attend and be present at the conclusion of the drawing or be disqualified or excused for cause the court shall forthwith proceed to fill such vacancies from the aforesaid remaining number of twenty-five names of those who are present in the order in which the names were drawn from the box and may thereupon in its discretion fill such vacancy or vacancies thus made in the petit jury by drawing the necessary number of additional names therefore in manner provided by Section 10 of this article. In Charles County the "pellet system" set out in Section 10(f) shall be used in the selection of the grand and petit juries. In Calvert County the system of marbles, balls or pellets, as set out in Section 10(a-1) shall be used in the selection of grand juries and petit juries. This section is modified as to Allegany County, Prince George's County and Talbot County. This section shall not apply to Baltimore County, as to which special provision is made by the local law therefor.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1961.

Approved February 27, 1961.
